

My quality of life has improved enormously since New Jersey enacted its Do Not Call legislation. I think the telemarketers are intruding on my privacy almost as much as if they had walked into my house uninvited.

Please do not weaken the protections we have in New Jersey from such endless intrusions!